Principal's Message

Dear College Community,

It gives me immense joy to present another edition of our biannual newsletter, Khatoon. This publication stands as a formal testament to the academic progress, institutional growth, and collective achievements of our college. I am pleased to inform you that our college has successfully embarked upon the fourth year of the National Education Policy (NEP), a significant milestone that heralds a new chapter in the academic journey of our institution. In accordance with the directives and vision of the NEP, substantial infrastructural development has been undertaken, with particular emphasis on Skill and Vocational Development. These initiatives ensure that our students are equipped with industry-relevant competencies and the professional readiness required to thrive in a dynamic world. Our institution continues to maintain a distinguished presence in the domain of co-curricular and extra-curricular activities. Our students have been bringing laurels to the college, excelling in academic competitions, cultural events, and sporting activities at various levels. Their achievements stand as a true reflection of their talent, discipline, and the wholesome education they receive here. We take immense pride in these young achievers, who carry the name of our institution with honour and distinction. Having attained the esteemed A+ Grade, the college does not regard this as the culmination of its efforts, but rather as the foundation for greater aspirations. It remains our firm institutional commitment to pursue higher benchmarks of quality, governance, and academic excellence, always guided by the spirit of learning and service. I take this opportunity to express my sincere appreciation to all stakeholders, including our dedicated faculty, hardworking staff, enthusiastic students, and supportive parents, for their continued commitment to the growth of this institution. We present this edition with both pride and humility, for it captures the spirit of an institution that refuses to stand still, one that is always learning, always growing, always serving, and always reaching for the extraordinary

May Almighty Allah bless us all and guide us in our shared pursuit of excellence.

Warm regards,

Prof. (Dr.) Huda Galzai
Principal.

Convener's Message

A newsletter is more than just a collection of updates. It is a living record of the energy, dedication and essence that defines an institution.

I am delighted to present this biannual issue-II of Khatoon, a humble yet sincere effort to document the multifaceted journey of our students, faculty and staff. From the classroom to the stage, from laboratories to literary gatherings, every page highlights the collective efforts of this institution.

I extend my heartfelt gratitude to the members of the College Publication Committee, whose diligence and collective effort made this publication possible. Each one of them contributed meaningfully, and the result speaks for itself.

We thank our layout designer for her careful and dedicated work in giving this newsletter its presentable form. We are also thankful to our photographer for diligently documenting each event and bringing those moments into print.

A very special thanks is due to our respected Principal, Prof. (Dr) Huda Galzai, whose trust in our modest abilities and gracious allowance of complete liberty in this work reflects the kind of leadership that quietly inspires.

We welcome your suggestions and look forward to improving with every issue.

With Gratitude
